REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

ON SABBATH SCHOOL CAUSE.

The very marked progress of the Sunday School cause among us as a denomination, is both an occasion for thanksgiving to Almighty God and encouragement to every laborer in this very important and interesting field.

The past demonstrates the fact that if we save the coming generation, it must be done while they are young, and by receiving instruction in the Sunday School,—and it seems that this work demands a still higher type of Biblical instruction, with a more direct reference to their conversion.

It is true that the Church is watching this interest so closely that there are no signs of decay, but on the contrary, we have rejoiced in the evidence of a steady increase of vitality and power for good; but the question arises, “Can we not do more than is being done to raise the standard of religious teaching in our schools?”

Our Teachers’ Institutes are doing a good work in this direction. From these semi-annual gatherings the members go to their schools with deeper impressions of the importance of, and better prepared for, the work of training the children for Heaven.

Therefore, as the interests of the children demand our highest zeal and greatest effort:—

1. Resolved, That having witnessed the benefits of the “Teachers’ Institutes,” and looking toward still greater results, we believe the time has arrived when the interests of the Sunday School work, in our Church within the bounds of the State, demand the organization of an annual State Convention of Sunday School Officers and Teachers, auxiliary to the Sunday School Union of the Church, and we most cordially invite our Brethren of the Michigan Conference to unite with us in this effort in behalf of the interests of the Sunday School.

2. Resolved, That a Committee of five, composed of three Ministers and two Laymen, be appointed by the Conference, to act in conjunction with a like Committee from the Michigan Conference, with power to arrange for a State Convention of Sabbath School Officers and Teachers, to be held at such time and place as such Joint Committee may determine upon.

3. Resolved, That we will urge, upon the ground of a Christian duty, our people up to a more general co-operation with the work of the Sunday School.

4. Resolved, That we will bring the interests of our Sabbath School Union more prominently before our people, and urge increased contributions to this object. Also, that we will make an effort to increase the circulation of our Sabbath School papers, the Advocate and the Teachers’ Journal.

ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance respectfully report :

Whereas, it is a fact beyond dispute, that the use of intoxicating beverages is at once the crime, the shame and the curse of our land, corrupting the fountains of Society, and interposing the most formidable obstructions to the progress of Virtue ; and yet an evil capable of control by the appliances of Intelligence, Government and Religion ; therefore

1. Resolved, That as Christian Ministers, we desire to bear a faithful testimony against an agency so fraught with ruin to our race, and therefore earnestly call the attention of our people both to the plain teachings of the Holy Scripture and to the language of our general rule on this subject.

2. Resolved, That while we rely mainly upon experimental Religion and the ordinary agencies of the Church for the salvation of men from drunkenness as from other sins, yet we recommend to the members of our Church so far as practicable, to unite with Temperance Organizations, and otherwise aid this great moral movement of Society.

3. Resolved, That the legal prohibition of the liquor traffic is a legitimate method of advancing the temperance reform, and that we will exert our influence at the ballot box and elsewhere to secure the enforcement of the excellent statute of our State on this subject.

4. Resolved, That we will not only speak faithfully on this subject in our pulpit ministrations, but also approve the holding of street meetings, at convenient times and places, in order to reach a class of persons who most need our instructions, but who rarely, if ever, visit our houses of worship.

5. Resolved, That we rejoice in the success of the Peninsular Herald, the only journal in the State devoted to the advocacy of Temperance, and most cordially recommend it as eminently worthy the patronage of the people.

JOHN RUSSELL,
S. E. WARREN,
G. W. OWEN.

ON PARSONAGES.

The Committee on Parsonages beg leave to present the following report :

Whereas, the want of a comfortable parsonage upon a charge often subjects the Pastor to great inconvenience, and sometimes to expenses he cannot well afford to bear ; and

Whereas, most of our charges are able to own houses for their Preachers ; and

Whereas, people will contribute more liberally and cheerfully to erect or purchase a good house than a poor one ; therefore

1. Resolved, That we affectionately advise every charge now destitute of a parsonage, to adopt measures to procure one at the earliest period practicable.

2. Resolved, That whenever we are appointed to charges in need of parsonages, we will use our influence to have them procure such as are both comfortable and convenient.

3. Resolved, That we respectfully request our Presiding Elders to urge the importance of building or purchasing a good house for the Pastor upon the Quarterly Conference of every charge not already provided with such.

4. Resolved, That each Preacher in charge is expected to furnish his parsonage with a cooking stove during the coming year, when they are not already so provided.

W. E. BIGELOW,
A. R. BARTLETT,
Committee.

ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Whereas, the Rev. J. Hinton, Agent of the American Bible Society, has presented its benevolent operations to the notice of your Committee, therefore Resolved, That this Conference endorses the broad and comprehensive plan of the American Bible Society for the supply of the whole country with the word of God.

Resolved, That, having increased confidence in the objects and efficiency of the American Bible Society, we will give it our cheerful support, and take up collections in all our churches to aid its efforts.

Resolved, That we will cordially unite with the agent of the American Bible Society in the circulation of the Holy Scriptures in our own State, and that our Ministers and people be requested to co-operate in this noble work.

JOHN WESLEY,

J. R. NOBLE,

IRA W. DONELSON,

ON FREEDMEN.

Your committee, to which was referred the cause of the freedmen in the South, beg leave to report our approval of the formation of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Missionary Society does not make appropriations for schools connected with domestic missions, and, since the education of the freedmen of the South is an imperative duty, we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

1. Resolved, That we heartily approve of the formation of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, as a temporary expedient to answer a present demand, and advise our people to contribute to the cause through that organization.

2. Resolved, That we recommend our Missionary Society to make permanent arrangements for educating the freedmen of the South, in connection with the regular missionary work.

3. Resolved, That we organize a conference auxiliary to the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, appointing the following officers: President, Rev. B. F. Cocker; Secretary, Rev. R. S. Pardington; Treasurer, Rev. J. M. Arnold.

ON PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Periodicals respectfully submit the following report :

Whereas, The Methodist Episcopal Church furnishes a periodical literature which, in its religious and literary character, is equal to any ; and

Whereas, Other churches are manifesting commendable zeal in circulating their publications among the people, greatly enlarging the sphere of their social, moral and religious influence thereby : therefore,

1. Resolved, That we will do all that we can, in our respective charges, to circulate our publications among the people.

2. Resolved, That we approve the establishment of the the New Orleans Advocate, and will, as ministers, extend to it our cordial sympathies, and, as far as practicable, our support.

ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The state of the country is still one of peril. When the rebel army surrendered and the Confederacy collapsed, and the arch-traitor, Jefferson Davis, was taken prisoner by Michigan troops, we thought the war was over. We thought that we had, under God, vindicated the authority of the Government, secured freedom of speech and of the press, and a free elective franchise to all loyal men, and that treason would become odious, and traitors be made to tremble before the majesty of the law.

We had no idea that prominent traitors would ever attempt to rule this nation. We supposed, indeed, that treason would be so punished that traitors, prominent in the rebellion, would be glad to escape from the country with their lives.

We rejoiced with joy unspeakable in the triumph of freedom and of law, and in the hopes that the struggles of the barbarisms of slavery against the blessings of a Christian civilization, were forever at an end.

We paid a price for this triumph which never can be estimated : hundreds of thousands of precious lives, billions of treasure, and, at last, the life of him who was the embodiment of patriotism and political wisdom, and who commanded the confidence and affection of the nation as no other man since Washington had ever done. When he fell, we endeavored to forget our sorrow in the hope that his successor would carry out his principles, only more directly and strongly in their opposition to treason. With trustfulness and affection, and with earnest desires for his success, we never ceased to pray that he might be guided by divine wisdom in re-establishing the Government upon a permanent basis, founded in justice and political equality. But how sadly has our confidence been betrayed. He in whom we desired to trust with all our hearts is now giving aid and comfort to those who have been, and still are, the determined and relentless enemies of the Government.

In the great struggle for liberty and the life of the nation, the Methodist Episcopal Church has thus far made a record which will be contemplated with a just pride by our children, and our children's children, to the latest generations. No prominent man of ours has ever yet betrayed this noble cause, and we pray God that our record for patriotism and philanthropy may forever remain untarnished.

A hundred thousand of our laymen, and many of our ministers, were our representatives in the army and navy of the Republic. Thousands of them laid down their lives in the hottest of the fight. They did not merely preach and pray, and encourage others to fight the battles of the country, but have poured out their own blood and treasure like water, as a libation to the God of Justice and Freedom.

But, sad as it is to say it, our battles are not over; our war is not ended. When we looked up for the bright-winged dove of peace, lo! the dark winged vultures of treason and slavery again darkened the heavens! The sword is but exchanged for the arts of diplomacy. Ballots are relied upon to accomplish what bullets could not do.

A system of wholesale bribery is brought into requisition to sustain the policy of one man against the true and faithful representatives of the loyal masses of the country. True to her long-established character for patriotism and unswerving devotion to the right, the Methodist Episcopal Church can always be relied upon to resist all such efforts to corrupt the people by bribes in the form of Executive patronage, to return the freedmen to practical bondage by giving them over, unprotected, to their old masters, whose tender mercies are cruelties, to suppress the freedom of speech and of the press, and to encourage the murder of our brethren and fellow-citizens, whose only crime is their devotion to the Government and to the rights of freemen.

Though we may suffer much, we are determined to cultivate the old, heroic, martyr spirit of our fathers, and stand firm.

Already churches and school-houses have been burned, christian teachers and ministers of the gospel have been murdered, and patriotic freemen have been driven from the South by thousands. If the President's policy is carried out, this is but the beginning of horrors.

While we have determined that no amount of suffering shall again exclude us from any part of the United States, we have also determined never to cease to demand all our rights as good and faithful citizens of this Republic.

The members of that church which, according to our martyred President, (O that God had spared him to us for this hour!) "sent more soldiers to the field, more nurses to the hospitals, and more prayers to Heaven for the country, than any other," has a right to demand the protection of that Government which she has done so much to save. We do demand it. We must and will have protection for our lives and property, and freedom, unmolested, to disseminate intelligence and a free gospel throughout all our land. What we demand for ourselves we also demand for all true friends of the Government, without regard to complexion or former relations to society. . .

We, with all our hearts, desire peace and union, but injustice does not make for peace. Permanent peace can never be had in this country till all men are equal before the law. Therefore,

1. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that all loyal citizens, without distinction of race or color, should enjoy the equal protection of the laws.

2. Resolved, That the double crime of perjury and treason committed by those who have held office under Government, and afterwards rebelled against it, swearing allegiance to a power designed for its overthrow, should forever hereafter disqualify them for any office, civil or military, in the United States.

3. Resolved, That, in our opinion, any conditions of settlement between the Government and the rebels less stringent than these, will not meet the claims of justice, the approbation of God, or secure the permanent peace and unity of the nation.

4. Resolved, That it is for the interest of the Government, as well as of the Kingdom of Christ, that our churches and free schools should be established as rapidly as possible in the Southern States, that, having a common education and a common religion, we may have a homogeneous civilization, and a united, permanent, and prosperous country.

J. S. SMART, Chairman.

REPORT OF CENTENARY COMMITTEE.

The Centenary (the hundredth year of Methodism in the New World) has come—is passing,—is well nigh gone. In the spirit of the organic centenary act of the General Conference, and in compliance with the suggestions of the Central Centenary Committee at New York the Church has thus far held its centenary jubilee Conference and local centenary committees have been appointed, under whose immediate supervision appropriate religious services have been held in most of our congregations; and, in many of these, memorial offerings have also been made to the various connectional and local objects contemplated in the original memorial designs of the church.

The amount thus far reported on subscription from sixty-five of the leading churches in the Conference is, in the aggregate, $26,192 75. Of this amount, $16,359 00 has been contributed to the endowment of Albion College; $4,720 50 to Garrett Biblical Institute; $2,035 00 to the general educational fund; $161 25 to the Church Extension Society; $50 00 to the Irish fund; $29 00 to the Mission House at New York, leaving a balance of $2,868 00 of unspecified funds, 50 per cent. of which, by action of the Conference Central Committee, shall be appropriated to the general educational fund, 35 per cent. to Albion College, and 15 per cent. to Garrett Biblical Institute.

The centenary services thus far have been occasions of great religious interest and spiritual profit, awakening in the minds of our people new love and admiration for the faith and polity of Methodism, and, in many instances, kindling to a flame their zeal for its prosperity.

Of the grand Centenary programme there yet remains the memorial sermon before the Conference, and the special services during the month of October. The character of these October services it may now be the province of the Conference to determine.

Your committee beg leave to second the recommendation of the Central Centenary Committee, that the whole month of October be devoted to protracted religious services. "Can we not," they inquire, "devote this month of thanksgiving and thank-offerings entirely to the Lord, and pray for His spirit to come on the whole church as He came unto our fathers, and yet more abundantly. May we not," they continue, "look for a grand revival, perhaps the greatest in our history, if we unite humbly and heartily in this universal act of devotion throughout the whole land." Let us, as a Conference, bring all our tithes and offerings into the store-house of our Lord, and prove Him now herewith, and see if He will not open for us the windows of Heaven, and so pour us out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

They also beg leave to recommend that the Sunday-school offerings of the children may be devoted in part to aid in the endowment of Albion College, and that appropriate memorial medals be ordered by the Conference for distribution among the children, on the same conditions as those established by the Central Committee, viz.: the payment of one dollar for each medal, or the collection and payment of five dollars into the Centenary treasury.

OBITUARY.

REV. GILES N. BELKNAP died on on the 13th of April, 1866, of pneumonia, at Napoleon, Jackson County, Mich. Bro. Belknap was born in Randolph, Vermont, May 13, 1811. Soon after his birth his parents removed to Genesee County, N. Y., where, in 1832, he was converted to God. In 1840 he was licensed to preach. In 1848 he came to this State and settled in Shiawassee County. The same year he was admitted on trial in the Michigan Conference. For eighteen years he has been a member of the Conference, receiving his appointment cheerfully, and doing his work well. He held a superannuated relation in 1857 and 1858, on account of his health, but even then his heart was in the work, and he was more active than others thought duty required or prudence dictated. He possessed great energy and force of character, and could not rest where there was so much work to be done. His preaching was always earnest and sympathetic. He disarmed criticism by speaking directly to the hearts of his hearers, making them feel that he loved them and desired their salvation. He spoke from a heart so full of the constraining love of God, that all were ready to say of him, "He is a good man." His pulpit labors were acceptable and profitable to the people he served, and were blessed of God in the conversion of many souls. It was, however, as a pastor he excelled. His cheerful countenance, his easy and homelike deportment, his generous, kind and loving heart, and his superior social talent, gave him a hearty welcome to the homes and hearts of the people. He will live in the memory and hearts of many as the minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ who visited from house to house. Bro. Belknap used to say, in regard to his conversion, "It was as clear as the noon-day sun." He knew the time when, and the place where, God, for Christ's sake, forgave his sins; and his subsequent christian experience was a blessed illustration of the declaration of the word of God: "The path of the just is a shining light, which shineth more and more to the perfect day." In his death the bereaved family have lost an affectionate husband and father, and the Conference has lost a faithful and devoted fellow-laborer and brother in the bonds of the gospel. We are mourners with them over his grave. Our tears fall with theirs in this bereavement; but, with them, we expect to meet him in our Father's house. In the exercise of this blessed hope we bow in submission to the will of God, and, adopting the dying words of our departed brother, say: "All is right."
